

Emergency Child Care During COVID-19 for Essential Workers + Children At-Risk or Special Needs

On behalf of the San Francisco Office of Early Care & Education, First 5 SF and the CA Department of Education, Children's Council is pleased to support our city's essential workers and most vulnerable children by connecting them with emergency child care during the COVID-19 situation.

Are You an Essential Worker?

Submit a request for emergency child care. Our staff will be in contact with you as soon as possible. Visit our Online Help Center to learn more about the Emergency Child Care Program and the latest information on Essential Workers Who Are Eligible for the program.

Is Your Child At-Risk or Have Special Needs?

Submit a request for an emergency child care voucher. Our staff will be in contact with you as soon as possible. Visit our Online Help Center to learn more.

Are You an Early Educator?

Not sure if your program should be open or closed? Want to support our city's essential workforce during COVID-19? Learn more about your options on our blog. You may also email us at support@childrenscouncil.org, call 415.343.4669 or explore our new Children's Council Online Help Center, which offers a wealth of information and resources.

Are You a Family at Home with Your Children?

Need information about the latest guidelines, community resources and learning activities for your kids? Visit our new Children's Council Online Help Center, which offers a large range of helpful articles and guidance for families.

- Facebook
- Twitter
- LinkedIn