

Child Development & Learning

Did you know that 90% of the human brain is developed by age 5? Children's Council offers a full range of resources to help families gain a better understanding of child development and learning.

To find out more about the importance of play, advice on distance learning, and how to access our free Toy and Book Lending Library and much more, visit our Online Help Center.