

Toy/Book Lending Library

Our Lending Library is free of charge and open to all. Parents, providers and our community are welcome to loan items from our collection, curated for children 0-6 years old.

We offer books, toys, games, puzzles, art supplies, puppets, blocks, dramatic play materials, balls, toys that support children's fine and gross motor development, sensory toys, materials for and about children with special needs, materials for and about LGBT families, activity guides, and information and resources on child development. Click here to browse and borrow our full inventory.

For the safety of our guests and our staff, we are offering no-contact pickup and return of items.